WHERE DO YOU WANT TO BE?

Now we are aware of where we are, today is a super fun day to really work on and discover where you want to be!

You may already have a clear outline of where you want to be, maybe lock down has made you realise that you want to re- evaluate your goals, maybe you need some help with finalising them, well today is a day of clarity!

Today our new mantra is:

" I am clear of where I want to be, my vision is before me."

Today we are going to create a vision board, but first i want you to answer the questions below.

Day Two

Today I want you to think about your end goal!

Make sure you've watched the video in the Facebook group.

Do you want to travel more? Get a new car? Move home?

Build your dream home? Build your dream business? Have a cabin in the back of your garden offering hair or beauty treatments? Spend more time with your family? Get a new fur baby?

If you haven't got a printer you can design a vision board on your desktop or phone using canva then you can save it to your background image, so you can see it often.

I've designed some canva quotes for you to print out they are at the end of this work book, I have also uploaded them into the group.

TOP TIPS

Once you have completed the work book go on that day's Video and comment done.
